Teknoflor® Launches Forest Plank HPD Coordinating Luxury Vinyl Plank

MILWAUKEE (February 28, 2019) – Teknoflor®, a major supplier of high-performance commercial flooring, announced today that it has launched Forest Plank HPD™ Coordinating Luxury Vinyl Plank.

The product is designed to match its sheet counterpart, Teknoflor Forestscapes HPD to provide extended versatility, usability and facility-wide opportunity for clients. The planks are produced in a 4”x36” format, cut to match the design used in its resilient sheet counterpart and is constructed in a 2.5mm thickness with a 28mil wear layer. Additionally, the product offers an industry leading twenty-year non-prorated warranty.

“We are thrilled to be able to offer a unique flooring solution to the Teknoflor brand” said Jeff Collum, President and CEO of Teknoflor. “Not only are we diversifying the Teknoflor brand with the addition of LVT, but we are also providing clients with the ability to expand their opportunity for design and coordination”

More about the line and representation can be found at teknoflor.com.
